General Comment

I spent extensive time studying and learning how to trade options, and routinely use them to boost returns in my IRA's and retirement account. It would be be unfair to take this right away from myself and others. Nobody has greater interest in investing my money than I do. I have spent the last 25 years educating myself in investing including options, which if used properly, can reduce risk for my retirement money, which will mean that I will be less dependent on the government and others. Please do not take this right away from those of us who have worked hard educating ourselves in investing and finance.
